

Environmental Policy

The need for environmental protection forms an integral part The Good Eating Company's business philosophy. The fact that our activities, or those of our employees, may have an effect on the environment is of great consequence to us. The Good Eating Company's has implemented an environmental management system and operates it in a manner that attains and sustains compliance to the international Environmental Management Standard ISO 14001 system. The Good Eating Company will continuously assess and improve its environmental performance and endeavours to operate in harmony with the environment, with particular emphasis on the following objectives:-

Compliance	To ensure compliance with all applicable environmental legislation and regulations.
Sourcing Materials	To utilise raw materials and processes which make minimum demands on the environment and which produce minimum waste.
Production	To carry out our service using environmentally friendly materials and equipment, which are energy efficient and produce minimal harmful waste when disposed of.
Waste & Recycling	To minimise waste produced through the business activities to improve waste management practices and promote the use of recyclable and renewable materials.
Energy	To reduce the demand on energy resources from our activities.
Transport & Distribution	To utilise, where applicable, efficient distribution and transport systems for goods and personnel in order to reduce emissions and prevent pollution.
Consumers	To provide all the information necessary to enable products to be properly used, stored and disposed of so as to avoid damage to the environment.
Employment & Training	To ensure that all employees are in a position to continuously improve environmental performance by providing appropriate information, training and consultation procedures. In order to ensure that our Environmental Policy promotes action rather than words, it is the responsibility of the senior management to demonstrate leadership to ensure that all employees understand and carry out this policy to the best of their ability to minimise risk.

The necessary personnel and financial resources will be allocated to assist The Good Eating Company in meeting its environmental objectives and targets and the environmental effects of the organisations activities will be regularly reassessed. This policy is made available to all interested parties.
